Why shouldn't you, and every has been demonstrated that Americans cannot live on the isthmus and perform manual labor for any length The Journal Printed Durof time and the proposition to secure negroes from Jamaica was recently advanced as a solution of the problem.

The latest scheme that has been advanced is the employment of Chinese coolies and the New Orleans States has the following to say upon the subject:

According to the reports of Americans who have recently returned from the Isthmus of Panama, the Jamaican negroes now employed in canal work are so lazy that they have proved utterly inefficient as laborers, while the few Chinamen who are employed have, to use a common expression, "made good," because they are not only steady workers, but can stand the climate without suffering any serious disability. But it appears that there is an intense prejudice among the Panamans against the Chinese in the country which has bred a hostility similar to that of the sand-lotters of Dennis sacola Journal's circulation for each Kearney's time.
